

Dear Hal,

10-13-73

My god, the pace of contemporary events! I wanted to write you with some impressions of the Canadian trial & of the Hunt-Webster testimony... but before I could get my thoughts together the Middle East exploded again, & news resigned a new lord, another of the serious look on Oswald, is to be the new V.P.! The mind boggles (yet again). So I leave only this briefly, no fee for the time being—just to keep in touch. More later—Love D.
